JULY ENTERTAINMENT

Boulder Times

Fourth of July Fun Facts:

1. Only two people actually signed the Declaration of Independence on July 4th. Most of the others signed on August 2nd.
2. Not everyone was on board with celebrating on July 4th (the day Congress approved the Declaration). John Adams wanted to celebrate on July 2nd, the day Congress voted for independence.
3. Three US Presidents have died on July 4th. John Adams, Thomas Jefferson, and James Monroe. In a bizarre twist of fate, Adams and Jefferson both died on July 4th 1826, the fiftieth anniversary of the country they helped found.
4. July 4th wasn't deemed a federal holiday until 1870, nearly 100 years after the nation was founded.
5. The Philippines gained their own independence from the United States on July 4th 1946 by signing the Treaty of Manila.
6. Americans consume around 155 million hot dogs on the 4th of July each year. They also spend $92 million on chips, $167.5 million on watermelon, and $341.4 million on beer.

EMPLOYEE of the Quarter

Karin Radke was nominated by several of her coworkers because she always has a smile on her face. She is willing to pick up shifts and is a great team player. She may fly under the radar, but her hard work and compassion do not go unnoticed. RELIABLE, HARD-WORKING, and TRUSTWORTHY are words fellow staff have used to describe her.

“Karin doesn’t wait for people to ask for help, she asks them how she can help. She cares about the residents, and brings concerns to the nurses. I wish I could work with Karin every shift.” - BC Nurse

Thank you so much Karin, we are so lucky to have you as part of our Boulder Creek Team!

TWO MOTHERS REMEMBERED

*I had two mothers, two mothers I claim.
Two different people, yet with the same name.
Two separate women, deverse by design.
But I loved them both, because they were both mine.
The first was the mother, who carried me here,
Gave birth and nurtured, and launched my career.
She was the one whose features I bear,
Complete with the facial expression I wear.
She gave me some music, which follows me yet
Along with examples in life that she set.,
Then as I grew older, she some younger grew,
And we'd laugh as just mothers and daughters can do.
But then came the year that her mind clouded so,
And I sensed that the mother I'd known soon would go.
So quickly she changed, and turned into the other -
A stranger who dressed in the clothes of my mother.
Oh, she looked just the same, at least at arm's length,
But she was the child now, and I was her strength.
We'd come full circle, we women three,
My mother the first, the second, and me.
And if my own children should come to a day
When a new mother comes, and the old goes away,
I'd ask of them nothing that I didn't do -
Love both of your mothers as both have loved you.*
